School Mission Statement

PS 102 Mission Statement:

Our core belief is that all children can achieve higher levels of academic success when provided with an interactive and challenging program, focusing on the individual needs of our multicultural population. Our mission recognizes the benefits a multicultural society can offer when a partnership consisting of parents, teachers, administrators and community exists. This partnership -learning community- is aimed at helping our children become independent thinkers, problem solvers and future leaders of tomorrow.

Principal's Statement

P. S. 102 is a special school with exemplary achievements, and has received many honors over the years. Recognized by the State in 2004 and 2005 as a Closing The Gap School, it has been a model for governance since 1991 as a "School-Based Management/Shared Decision Making" school; in 1994, as a "Compact Partnership School," and in 1995 as "One of America's Best Schools" for overall excellence by Redbook Magazine. It received the State's "Outstanding Early Childhood Program Award" in 1996 and was designated "A School for the 21st Century" in 1997. In 1999 Donna Hanover named 102 "A Cool School".

Special Academic Programs

Some academic programs at P.S. 102 include: Advanced Placement program on all grades; IIM Gifted Program Technology Program which includes a TV studio program, internet access, smartboard and laptop computers. Our Cultural Arts program enhances the arts through the presentation of our talent show, chorus, opera, recorder and band performances.
