School Mission Statement

At PS 110 we dedicate ourselves to the challenge of providing our students with standards-based instructional programs that empower them to grow into lifelong learners, both academically and socially.

While creating purposeful learning environments where individual needs are supported by our nurturing staff, we provide the opportunity to expand horizons through our deep commitment to the arts. We expect our students to be actively engaged in their own learning as they pursue a rigorous curriculum. In collaboration with school, home and community, we model for our students the behaviors they need to recognize their individuality as they grow to respect the individuality of others in our rich culturally diverse society.

Principal's Statement

The entire staff at PS 110 is committed to working collaboratively with parents and community organizations to help our children grow into responsible caring adults. We are striving to keep class sizes small so as to facilitate individualized instruction and maintain high standards. We provide arts residencies and an early childhood music program. We also provide opportunities for community service. These experiences expand our students' outlook and foster an appreciation of the world outside their homes.
