School Mission Statement

We, the Ericsson School Community, share the common belief that all students can learn. We are also cognizant of the critical problems facing young people in today's world. Therefore, we are committed to the highest level of professionalism in order to provide a caring, supportive and safe educational environment in which each student is challenged to achieve and excel. We are committed to the building of a reading & writing community in our school that will be the catalyst to motivate our students to have richly literate lives. We believe the arts in our school provides our students with another salient form of expression that impacts on who they are and who they will become. In addition, we have a commitment to the local community. We celebrate all major events that occur in the community.

Principal's Statement

Excellence in academics & athletics on city-wide and state levels. Award winning student publication, "Greetings from Greenpoint". City-wide recognition in writing contests, spelling bees and story-telling contests. Science classes won Brooklyn Borough honors for their recycling projects. Cheerleaders & Dance Team perform for Special Olympics, mayor and city functions. Our basketball team has won city championships. We have also earned titles in baseball, track & volleyball. We have a rigorous academic programs in math & english classes & conduct foreign language instruction in Latin & Spanish.

Special Academic Programs

The Greenpoint Monitor Museum annually brings a Civil War program to our school. We have a spelling bee & story-telling contest. We have poetry, reading, & chess clubs. Teachers organize multi-cultural activities for student enrichment. We have Arista & Honor Society programs as well as accelerated classes for Grades 6,7, & 8.

Extracurricular Activities

We have Cheerleading, Dance Team, Chess, Book, Fine Arts, A/S Band, Cooking, Newspaper & Boys & Girl's Clubs. We have a Tech Crew, Student Council Programs, Library Squad & extensive sports programs - including boys & girls basketball teams, volleyball, track, soccer and tennis. Teams participate in city-wide competitions.

Community Support

We have a partnership with the Council on the Environment who works with our science teachers. A LEAP program provides professional workshops in dance & art. We have Project Arts and a Women Playwright's Program, art program, Beacon program, after school tutoring program. The John Ericsson Society-contest promotes interest in Ericsson.

Parent/School Support

Parents serve on the school leadership team, work closely with teachers, principal, on school-related needs. PTA sponsors fundraising activities for student enrichment programs. PA organizes parent workshops-computer, reading/writing. Established parent library - books on teen issues. Our Parent Coordinator is developing new programs for parents.
