School Mission Statement

PS 139 is dedicated to creating a nurturing environment: a community where all children strive for high standards, develop a love for learning and respect for themselves and others.

Principal's Statement

The entire PS139 school community works to create a warm, challenging environment for all its students. Our students represent many diverse cultures and ethnicities, which enhance our learning environment. We are constantly working to improve the teaching and learning at our school. Instruction is provided in small groups and is individualized to meet student needs. The PS 139 school community has actively and collaboratively explored restructuring models, and has successfully created schools-within-schools.

Special Academic Programs

Two mini-schools; gifted & talented program; Youth Developer; Balanced Literacy Program; Collaborative Team Teaching on all grades; Self-Contained class for students with special needs: cultural and community partnerships; VISTA team; a wide range of Academic Intervention Services; volunteers and paraprofessionals tutoring.

Extracurricular Activities

Brooklyn Philharmonic; Learning Leaders; Studio in a School; Music and the Brain; Theatre Moves; Educators for Social Responsibility; CAMBA OST after school program for ESL students; Chess; Clubs; Marquis Studios; Odyssey of the Mind Brooklyn College; Kingsborough Community College; Sports & Arts;

Community Support

Church Avenue Merchants Association; Sports & Arts; Brooklyn Philharmonic; Learning Leaders; Brooklyn College; Kingsborough Community College.

Parent/School Support

Parents are equal partners in our School Leadership Team. Parents assist in classrooms. Parents and teachers cooperatively designed the first mini-school in 1993. Regular parent workshops on children's issues (e.g. guidance, health, homework). EVENSTART program for newly arrived immigrant families. Welcome breakfast, curriculum conferences, etc.
