School Mission Statement

Our mission is to create a safe and nurturing environment in an effort to encourage children to develop an ongoing interest in high level thinking and learning. Our concentration is to collaboratively plan engaging lessons, which will prepare our students to successfully meet state standards and provide practical, analytical, and independent learning opportunities. Our objective is to enhance the development of our students in a multicultural and ever changing society.

Principal's Statement

Our school motto, "I Have a Dream." pays tribute to our professional staff who are highly motivated and committed to educational excellence for students. Our students are exposed to an enriched curriculum, emphasizing the best practices in all the subject areas. The staff and student attendance rate is at an all-time high, due to a supportive administration and a warm, receptive school environment. We believe in working collaboratively, staff and parents, bringing in sports, and cultural arts to achieve high standards for our students.

Special Academic Programs

Read 180, Computer Enrichment Program, Honor Society, Principal's Wall of Readers, Principal Honor Roll, Title II, Wireless Computer Lab, The Book of the Month Club, Core Curriculum Cluster Program, Academic Intervention Service Cluster Program, Peer Tutoring, Into the Classroom, Extended Day Program, Saturday Prep Academy, Robin Hood Library,

Extracurricular Activities

Student Assistants, Drama Club, Library Club, Intramural Basketball, After School Reading, Math, and Technology, The Music-Makers, Chess In Schools, Student Government, and Performing Arts Academy, and a Swimming Program.

Community Support

We have partnerships with the NYC Learning Leaders, Children for Children, Brownsville Recreational Center, Brownsville Public Library, Into the Classroom, Chess in Schools, Oasis, Writer's Academy, and a Music Program.

Parent/School Support

Parent/School Collaboration is essential to our success. The PTA schedules monthly meetings to address topics of interest. Our parent volunteer training through The Learning Leaders, is an integral part of this collaboration.
