School Mission Statement

At Public School 189, The Bilingual Center, we are committed to ensuring that our students achieve the highest educational standards, and who are fluent in two languages, are problem solvers and critical thinkers and who will be active participants in the lives of their family, their community, their city, their state, their country and greater society, and the world.

Principal's Statement

At PS 189, we are proud to offer a rich educational setting where the student's cultural heritage is appreciated and nurtured while the State and City standards are met. All of our students are taught a foreign language. High expectations are set for all. Parents, staff and the community are partners in the education of our children.

Special Academic Programs

This year's academic programs include the ARISTA Honor Society, Regents classes in Life and Earth Science, Specialized High School Prep, Latin, French and Spanish classes, the Teachers' College Writing Workshop, Dual Language Programs in Spanish and Haitian Creole, and Gifted and Talented classes.

Extracurricular Activities

Non-academic activities include: Physical Education for the Middle School, student government, math, foreign language, yoga, spoken word and chess clubs, a Dance Studio, an Orchestra, and Boys Scouts.

Community Support

We have partnerships with the Lorraine Monroe Leadership Institute, Teachers' College at Columbia, Music Outreach, HAUP, 21st Century Leadership Program, Diaspora Community Services and The Boys and Girls Clubs of America.

Parent/School Support

Parents have an integral part in our school life. We have parent leaders in grades K to 3. The PTA meets monthly and parents are vital to the School Leadership Team. The activities offered to parents range from parenting to academic classes which support them in their endeavor to help their children succeed.
