School Mission Statement

The mission of the Raoul Wallenberg School is to involve the community, parents, staff, and all students in a partnership that builds self-confidence, superior academic and social skills, exposure to the arts and fosters respect, friendship and an appreciation for cultural diversity through standards driven instruction, high achievement and high expectations within a rigorous and meaningful curriculum.

Principal's Statement

At P.S. 194, The Raoul Wallenberg School, we provide a learning environment that builds self-confidence and develops superior academic and social skills. We place great emphasis on parent involvement and collaboration, from our Universal Pre-Kindergarten program through grade 5. Our varied academic and recreational programs extend the school day. We offer morning, afternoon and evening programs for students and their families. We involve members of the community in our Learning Leaders Volunteer Program. The arts are alive and well at P.S. 194. Students participate in our well established Wallenberg Chorus and Project Arts/Visual Arts Experiences.
