School Mission Statement

The mission of PS 199 is to instill a lifelong love of learning and to foster self-esteem in every child. In addition, we strive to work with parents to develop the social, educational and emotional needs of all children so that they will be able to meet the challenge of the future. We feel that literacy is the fundamental skill in a well-rounded education, which is essential in order for children to become law-abiding, contributing members of society.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 199 stresses high standards and academic achievement. The school is a Pre K - 6 organization whose staff is certified in all license areas. P.S. 199 is a traditional school with an emphasis on literacy and mathematics. The importance of community awareness, civic responsibility, and good citizenship are stressed and included in the daily program at our school.

Special Academic Programs

An individualized reading and math program, a structured, "hands-on" science program, an innovative Debate Team, and a Specialized Library and Current-Events program.

Extracurricular Activities

An after-school program, which offers recreation and homework help; after-school library hours; and an after-school extended day program for grades 3-6.

Community Support

We have partnerships with the Brooklyn Arts Council, the Brooklyn District Attorney's Office, NYC School Volunteers, Midwood Development, COJO, and the 70th Police Precinct.

Parent/School Support

Parent/Teachers Association, a Parent Involvement Program. Title I/PCEN parent workshops, PTA meetings, Parent Orientation meeting (September), Parent-Teacher conferences, and School Leadership Teams.

2006-07 School Accountability Status:

In Good Standing

This school received Title I Funding in:

2004-05: YES; 2005-06: YES; 2006-07: YES

The Division of Assessment and Accountability (DAA) compiled this report primarily from central databases and information provided by this school's principal.
