School Mission Statement

P.S. 219 stands as a perfect example of how a whole can become more than the sum of its parts. Although we have staff that varies widely in experience and cultural background, we share a common vision that focuses our efforts on improving student achievement and school to educate our children so that they may become productive members of society. Our motto, "Achieving Excellence" expresses this commitment and is representative of our school culture.

Principal's Statement

The Kennedy-King School continues to rise to academic heights! We are proud of our parents, teachers, students and community. We treat all of our students as gifted and talented. The school community is committed to preparing students to meet life's challenges and opportunities. We encourage achievement in all learning areas with heavy emphasis on the Arts and Sciences. Our students in grades 3-5 have shown significant improvement in their academic performance.

Our goal is to assist our students in meeting the challenges of the 21st century.

Special Academic Programs

P.S. 219 offers SOAR, JAVITS AND ACADEMY PROGRAMS. Teachers provide small group instruction to students in all grades before and during regular school hours. The Early Morning Tutorial Program is offered to students in grades 3,4,& 5.

Extracurricular Activities

Theatre and musical productions are ongoing throughout the school year.

Community Support

NYC Police Dept. support from NYC School Volunteers, colleges/universities, Brookdale Hospital, Arts Horizons and supplemental residencies

Parent/School Support

The school leadership team is comprised of parents and staff. They disseminate information during PTA, PAC & school orientation meetings. Math, ELL & ESL workshops provide skills that can be shared with students. Parent Coordinator works with teams and committees to assist parents.
