School Mission Statement

The vision at David A. Boody School IS 228 for Magnet Studies is to promote student achievement, academically and personally, by creating a caring, collaborative and challenging learning environment that recognizes the unique intellectual, social and emotional needs of young adolescents.

Our mission is to help each and every child realize his/her full potential and become a productive, responsible citizen and life long learner who is able to use technology effectively and appreciate the diverse society in which we live as we prepare and contribute to the 21st century. Our community of learners, consisting of staff, students and parents, is focused on establishing

Principal's Statement

David A. Boody IS 228 has been structured into small learning communities to meet the individual needs of all learners. At IS 228, we recognize that the teacher is the most important factor in student success. Our teachers participate in ongoing professional development focusing on teaching practices that promote active student engagement e.g. cooperative learning, reciprocal teaching, workshop model, and constructivist pedagogy. Our academic programs provide comprehensive opportunities to extend content knowledge. Our fine and performing arts programs enable students with varied learning styles to achieve excellence.

Special Academic Programs

We are proud to offer: enhanced literacy and numeracy programs, Marine Biology, Herpetology, Regents Earth Science, Regents Living Environment, Regents Math, nationally recognized Chess Team, widely recognized Instrumental and Choral Music ensembles, Dance Troupe and more. We have forged partnerships with the NY Aquarium, Lincoln and City Center.

Extracurricular Activities

Our beyond school day program is enhanced by Council for Unity, Senior Activities Committee, CHAMPS Interscholastic basketball and volleyball, Chess Team, National Arista/Archon Society, Conflict Resolution Program through Peer Mediation, Technology Team, Chinese Dance Troupe, and Zero Period Music Enrichment.

Community Support

IS 228 has established partnerships with supplemental educational service providers e.g. Knowledge Plus Academy and Brienza's Academic Advantage. Community Based Organizations such as the Italian American Federation and the YMCA offer our students academic enrichment, homework help and team sports activities.

Parent/School Support

The parents are active members of the school community. They are actively involved in the Parent Teachers Association, School Leadership Team, School Safety Committee, Special Events and volunteer work. In addition to the traditional task of fundraising, our parents enthusiastically offer to provide help in any way possible.
