School Mission Statement

Each and every child in our school can learn and reach his/her full potential. P.S. 250 recognizes that each child is unique with varied and different abilities, learning styles and talents. Our goal is to meet the needs of our students in a safe, pleasant environment with a challenging curriculum. Total commitment, support and hard work from each staff member will ensure educational success for our students. Children need and deserve the best we can give them. Our school recognizes, appreciates and welcomes the assistance and dedication of its parents and caregivers as we strive to bring out the best in children, in terms of their emotional, academic and social development. Active parental involvement, coupled with the vast resources within the school community, add an essential dimension to developing the education of each child.

Principal's Statement

P.S.250 is a nurturing and exciting place to learn. Our focus on rigorous academic standards and high expectations is grounded in research and the belief that all children can learn. It is a place where children want to be and our high attendance percentage is a testament to that. This year, our school has worked diligently in increasing opportunities for children in the arts. We continued and increased our efforts to provide meaningful staff development strategies for everyone working with students. We will place added emphasis on providing extra activities and resources for all students.
