School Mission Statement

Our mission is to support and nurture the academic success of all our students. This includes providing well rounded arts and technology experiences. Our goal is to motivate students by encouraging learning in ways that are meaningful and in ways that stimulate curiosity and interest for further academic growth. Within the classroom, engaging curriculum ensures that learning experiences are directly related to standards, high expectations and real world experiences. We are dedicated to the promotion of integrity, respect, equality and caring for the well being and whole development of our school community. The collaborative efforts of the administration, staff and parents support this educationally and emotionally supportive learning environment.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 269 prides itself on its strides toward academic excellence. The staff, students and parents have committed themselves to building a strong community of learners. To this end, we are taking all necessary steps to improve the quality of education at P.S. 269 so that all students will meet with success. We support and applaud all efforts to achieve. Our staff knows, respects and nurtures each student and works to support their academic, social and emotional needs. Our motto is "When one of us succeeds, we all succeed".
