Principal's Statement

The John M. Coleman IS 271 school provides a challenging standards-based curriculum that emphasizes critical thinking, quality instructional programs and support services that motivate students to meet or surpass City and State performance standards. Our Students are encouraged to proactively engage in their learning environment and to become resourceful thinkers. Our supportive environment and nurturing programs assist our students and their families in making informed decisions. Our committed administrative team, which includes the staff, P.T.A, SPINS, school leadership team, and CAMBA, help to ensure our students' future success.

Special Academic Programs

The John M. Coleman IS 271 school has the following special features: English Language Learners, Extended Day Program, Chess in Schools, Literacy and Math Blocks, Performing and Fine Arts.

Extracurricular Activities

Extracurricular activities include: a Basketball Team, Chess, various clubs, Dance, Art and a Beacon Program.

Community Support

We have various partnerships, including: Brookdale Hospital, City Center Theater, CAMBA - BEACON Program, St.John's University, 21st century and support from the Attendance Improvement Dropout Prevention Program.

Parent/School Support

Parents are welcome members of the IS 271 family. We work collaboratively with parents to ensure our students' success. There are collaborative workshops and retreats during the school year to address parenting skills. Parents are also actively involved in our leadership team.
