School Mission Statement

PS/IS 284 is committed to providing its student body a quality education that promotes academic competence consistent with the performance standards.

We believe in the inclusion of all students in every program and activity at our school.

We also strive to emphasize good health and wellness practices within the entire school community.

Principal's Statement

In the 2005-2006 school year, our school plans to consolidate our efforts and continue to chart a relevant educational course for students, parents, teachers, and other staff members of the PS/IS 284 learning community. At PS/IS 284 our philosophy is that students learn best when they are actively involved through investigative, inquiry-based education. Therefore, our emphasis will be on our providing students with experiences that will allow them to pose questions, make predictions, manipulate objects, and explore concepts in order to develop a better understanding of learning goals and objectives.

Special Academic Programs

Health/Wellness program, Specialized High School Tutorial, MSP Math Enrichment Program, Math Tutorial, Class Size Reduction Program, Extended Day and Saturday programs.

Extracurricular Activities

Men Of Character, Mental Health Initiative, Fine Arts, Yoga, Drums, Chorus, Drama, Swimming Program, Movie Making, Tap Dance, Song Writing, Book Making, and a Health and Wellness Fitness Center For parents and Staff.

Community Support

Organization affiliations include: Brooklyn Center for Psychotherapy Center, LEAP, and Teachers Prep High School.

Parent/School Support

The collaborative endeavors between parents/caregivers and the school will be maintained and strengthened with the objective of ensuring high student academic achievement consistent with the performance standards. We also resolve to empower our parents/caregivers as valuable partners in education.
