School Mission Statement

"The Pride of Coney Island"

The mission of The Shirley Tanyhill School (PS/IS 288) is to provide a quality education which cultivates the academic strengths and creative talents of all students, including English Language Learners, Special Education students, and high achieving students. Our expectation is for students to demonstrate an attitude toward excellence where learning is the number one priority and academic achievement is celebrated.

Principal's Statement

With four coaches, professional development opportunities are designed to assist in the development and implementation of the curriculum. Our goal is for students to achieve improvement in their performance as measured by state exams. We work to improve our students' skills while implementing a school-wide focus on cooperative discipline, math and reading, and 4th and 8th grade science. The three Assistant Principals, who are instructional leaders, and I firmly believe that adherence to ATTENDANCE, ACHIEVEMENT, and ATTITUDE will lead to No Child Being Left Behind.

Special Academic Programs

Emphasis is on the Principles of Learning: accountable talk, organizing for effort, establishing clear expectations, and academic rigor in a thinking curriculum. Teachers use data to drive standard-based classroom instruction. Academic intervention meets the needs of the students and is monitored frequently.

Extracurricular Activities

Chorus; Violin lessons; Step Team;

Community Support

NYC Police Department, NYC Fire Department, NYC Parks Department, and Beacon/HeartShare Program.

Parent/School Support

We have an active Parent Room and Family Assistants provide a liaison between school personnel and our parent community. Our Parent Association continues to be an integral part of the team effort at PS/IS 288. Our Parent Activities include: Monthly PTA meetings, School Leadership Team, Learning Leaders, and ESL workshops.
