School Mission Statement

"Committed to being ACHIEVERS, ACHIEVING nothing but the BEST"

The Margaret S. Douglas Intermediate School 292 commits to educating a multicultural body of achievers armed with the knowledge, skills and values needed to make positive contributions to their community as productive citizens in the 21st century. This will be achieved through a collaborative effort of parents, teachers, students and the community.

VISION: To educate all of our students to be the best that they can be.

Principal's Statement

It is my dream that I.S. 292 will be the premier Middle School in Region 5. We are on a mission to use the arts (dance, drama, instrumental music, vocal music, fine arts, visual arts,) to foster an educational environment that enriches our students academically as well as culturally.

Special Academic Programs

Programs for Gifted Students in all grades.
Specialized High School Prep courses in all grades.
Inquiry based Science program.
2 computer labs and 200 laptops for use by students.
Early morning and Extended Day library programs.

Extracurricular Activities

Extended Day Programs in Dance, Law, Chess, Instrumental Music, Vocal Music, Drama, African Drumming, Art and Basketball and Marching Band.

Community Support

IS 292 has fostered community partnerships with the following: 75th Precinct, Sports and Arts Foundation, Colony South Houses, Long Island University, Pratt Institute, Pace University, B-Smart - New York City Probation Dept.

Parent/School Support

Parents are instrumental in making curriculum and budgetary decisions through our School Leadership Team. Our parents provide a highly visible presence. In addition, we provide parent workshops, Parent Recognition Day, Open House Night, Family Counseling, and more.

2006-07 School Accountability Status:

Restructuring - Year 2
