School Mission Statement

The Ethan Allen Elementary School is a diverse and collaborative school community dedicated to exceeding the city and state standards. We will achieve these standards through quality standards-based classroom instruction. We will provide students with a safe, secure, nurturing environment that will enable them further enhance their critical thinking, decision making, technological, social and communication skills. We will work collaboratively to foster positive relationships among parents, teachers, students, staff and overall school community. We will provide students with the necessary skills and social values to become successful contributors to society.

Principal's Statement

P.S.306K is a school community that truly believes with dedication, patience, and perseverance, our children will achieve academic excellence. Our mathematics and literacy programs provide continuity of instruction which assists students in meeting and achieving the state standards. The goal of PS/MS306K is to have every student on or above grade level in all academic areas. For the 2004-2005 school year our fourth grade students increased 23% in ELA and 37.1% in mathematics. Students in grades three and five also made significant gains in reading and math for the 2004-2005 school year.

Special Academic Programs

Accelerated, enrichment classes in grades Kg - 8; Compass Learning (A Computer assisted Remedial Reading and Math Lab); Reading Plus (A computer assisted remedial reading lab); Inclusion Classes (Gr.4,6,8); Tuesday and Thursday Seamless Day Academic Program for literacy, mathematics, and social studies in grades 3-8 (3:00-5:00)
