School Mission Statement

The Dr. Rose B. English School is dedicated to educating all children in an exciting and nurturing environment. We aspire to give children the tools to make good decisions, function in a technologically advanced society and work collaboratively with all people. This will be achieved by continually developing the adults in the school community, as well. We support a rigorous and diverse instructional program. It is our goal to develop our children and staff into lifelong lovers of learning.

Principal's Statement

The Dr. Rose B. English School continued its focus during the past school year. Our Reading and Math programs are designed to increase students' achievement on the standardized exams. In addition to this academic focus the school is involved in a number of school-wide programs aimed at nurturing the talents and interests of our children. Our many club activities, afterschool programs, trips and excursions, including many trips, have helped to round out the school year. We have continued plans for success, linkages with colleges and other community organizations, and an increase in the use of technology in our instructional programs.

Special Academic Programs

Our special academic programs include: Read 180, Wilson, Early Childhood Technology Media Center, Early Childhood Science Discovery Center, Voyager, Testing Grade Academic Intervention Services, Extended Day, Saturday Academy

Extracurricular Activities

Computer Club, Safety Patrol, School Newspaper, Student Council, Brooklyn College Guidance Program, YWCA, Future Stars, Virtual "Y", Ready For Success, Math-a-thon for St. Jude's, Penny Harvest, Community Service Club, Photography Club, Spelling Bee, Peer Mediation, Brooklyn Music School, Art Club.

Community Support

Brooklyn College, Brookdale Hospital, Brooklyn Arts Council, Medgar Evers College.

Parent/School Support

Our active PTA meets monthly with both morning and evening meetings. Workshops, seminars and conferences are regularly available for parents as is Learning Leaders training.
