School Mission Statement

Our mission at PS/IS 332 as educators and parents is to meet and exceed standards, and work as a community to develop the full potential of each child. We expect that all of our children will use their education to enrich their own lives and become productive, responsible members of their community.

Principal's Statement

P.S./I.S. 332 is a Pre-K through Grade 8 school. Its population is diverse. There are children in both regular and special education classes who are physically disabled. The building is barrier-free enabling physically disabled persons easy access to all floors, classrooms and facilities. The school has recently undergone many new interior and exterior upgrades with more planned. The Leadership team, consisting of teachers, paraprofessionals, parents, and administrators, has as their major goals the raising of standards, and the improvement of instruction.

Special Academic Programs

Networked computer lab, computers in many of the Pre-K - 8 classrooms, Library/Media Center, Project Arts, Read 180, Grades 3 through 7 Extended Day Program, afterschool sessions for students in grades 3-8.

Extracurricular Activities

OASIS, Basketball and Track for students in grades 6 through 8, and tennis highlight our extracurricular activities.

Community Support

We have partnerships with Brookdale Hospital, Helping Hands Ministry, and these programs: UFT Teacher Center and Learning Leaders.

Parent/School Support

The Executive Board of PS/IS 322 is a hard-working team. PTA meetings are held monthly on every third Thursday. All parents are encouraged to attend all meetings and let their voices be heard.

2006-07 School Accountability Status:
