School Mission Statement

The mission of Brooklyn Collegiate is to facilitate learning and create an environment where all students can master the challenges of a rigorous curriculum. A curriculum that will guide them to college entrance and success. We are committed to establishing a strong school community of families, teachers, staff and community based organizations in support of our core mission. Our students will learn to think critically, communicate effectively and be open to new experiences and ideas as they become life long learners.

Principal's Statement

Brooklyn Collegiate is the first College Board school in New York City. We are dedicated to providing the finest quality education for all students. We are a school community that develops well rounded individuals. As the "Home of the Urban Scholars" we nurture the artistic side, as well as the academic side of all of our students. Technology, extracurricular activities and sports are all par for the course.

Special Academic Programs

The following programs enhanced academic achievement: Student Achievement Workshop - 7 Habits for Highly Effective Teens; Advisory Program- designed to build a sense of community and allow students to get to know one another; Title II D - students built websites; Distinguished Speaker Series - professionals discussed their profession.

Extracurricular Activities

Webquest, Fencing, Ballroom Dancing, Basketball, Chorus, Spoken Word, Drama, Dance, School Wide trip to Washington, D.C., Games, Stepping, Technology Team, Chess.

Community Support

College Board
Gates Foundation

Parent/School Support

Award ceremonies were supported by the PTA with dinner and other incentives. Parents volunteered and served as chaperones on a wide array of school activities and school wide trips. Fundraisers were also conducted to provide the school with additional funds for school related activities.
