School Mission Statement

The mission of the Canarsie High School educational community is to maximize the learning potential of all students and to empower our students to lead successful and productive lives. Developing exemplary intellectual and interpersonal skills is the focus and challenge of our instructional programs. The partnership of the staff, students and parents in the school reinforces and promotes excellence. We believe that our nurturing environment of high expectations will instill in our students a high level of self-esteem and confidence which will enable them to be productive, contributing members of society. We believe in educating the whole person through academics, social activities, vocational pursuits and athletics.

Principal's Statement

At Canarsie we believe that our nurturing environment instills a high level of self esteem and confidence in each student. We set high expectations as educators to move every child towards becoming successful citizens within the 21st Century and readiness for the global economy. We offer a rigorous yet comprehensive high school curriculum to strengthen and support this learning community of teachers, staff and students. Our specialized programs in technology, law and health professions add to the benefits of a Canarsie education along with our parental, community and business collaborations.
