School Mission Statement

FDNY High School for Fire and Life Safety's mission is to develop an effective partnership among all parents, community members, and our staff members as stakeholders in our students' lives. Together, the stakeholders will work collaboratively to develop a positive learning community where all students will benefit from a quality education in a healthy, safe and nurturing environment.

As a result, our students will become life long learners and productive citizens that will empower their community through their many successes.

Principal's Statement

FDNY is a 9-11 grade comprehensive high school; we will admit 108 students in September 2006 and September 2007. The mission of FDNY High School is to empower and prepare our students to become productive members of society. FDNY High School's goal is to identify, prepare, and deliver a student body that can meet the intellectual, physical and moral demands of first response in the 21st Century. It will establish and uphold the highest academic standards and demand exemplary character in each student. Graduates of FDNY HS will possess the knowledge, skill, and commitment to service to contribute to the safety and moral character of our nation.

Special Academic Programs

FDNY HS has an Emergency Medical Response and Fire Safety curriculum. The students are exposed to the theory and mechanics of First Aid and Fire Safety techniques. As a result of participating in the courses, students will learn how to use various tools, develop mechanical skills, aptitude and greater awareness of personal and fire safety.

Extracurricular Activities

Extracurricular Activities include: Campus wide sports teams- Baseball, Basketball, Football, Soccer, Track & Field, Softball and the STEP Team. The Explorer's Club and EMT TECHS. Journalism Club.

Community Support

We are partnered with the New York City Fire Department.
College Now Program with John Jay College of Criminal Justice.
Groundworks for Success Inc.

Parent/School Support

FDNY HS has an active Parent-Teacher Association. Our Parent Coordinator serves as the liaison to our parents and the various community based organizations.
