School Mission Statement

What is Global Citizenship? Global Citizenship is the active awareness of the connection between our local experiences and the rest of the world. At HSGC, our students will become Global Citizens who use this awareness to effect positive change in the world.

What is HSGC's Mission? The High School for Global Citizenship is a community of active learners and problem solvers who are engaged participants in a multidisciplinary and experiential approach to learning both in and outside of the classroom. Our school is committed to both academic achievement at the highest standards and to the promotion of diversity, justice, human rights, and the democratic process.

Principal's Statement

At HSGC, we are committed to exploring global issues in and outside of the classroom and becoming more informed about and involved in the world around us. As HSGC continues to grow (capacity of 425 students by 2007-2008), we continue our commitment to offering a challenging academic program in a nurturing and personalized small school environment. We take pride in our Year 1 successes (including average attendance of over 90% and the development of a strong school culture) and we look forward to the introduction of new programs in Year 2 (including an honors program, arts and technology programs, learning trips across the United States).

Special Academic Programs

Core Learning Experiences: Bridge Program & Retreat for all incoming 9th grade students in August; Spirit Week; Global Citizenship Week; Math Olympics.

Advisory program: Small group setting in which students discuss academic, social, and personal issues.

Extracurricular Activities

Academic programs including: Global Kids Leadership Program; Student Government/Advisory Council; Photography Club; and Study Hall.

PSAL sports including: boys track, basketball, volleyball, baseball; and, girls track, basketball, volleyball, softball, and soccer.

Community Support

Already recognized as a model in developing effective school-community partnerships, HSGC thrives through our partnership with Global Kids, Inc. Global Kids provides support for classroom instruction, after school activities, and core learning activities and helps HSGC make progress toward achievement of our mission.
