School Mission Statement

Students, staff and parents/guardians will be nurtured in an environment that respects the individual, promotes human potential, develops leaders who will act as agents of change and empowers individuals to compete and thrive in the world of the 21st Century. Each person will be encouraged to make a lifelong commitment to his/her own education and to public service.

Principal's Statement

Our goal at EBC is to nurture in students, staff and parents a desire to learn and help others, and a determination to make a difference. We aim to develop students who will lead and act as agents of change. As such, we prepare them to succeed in college and beyond, and provide experiences and research skills which will enable them to contribute to community empowerment in the 21st Century. Therefore, from 9th thru 12th grades we will prepare students for their future educational endeavors.
