School Mission Statement

Vision--We envision an environment in which all our constituent partners—students, faculty, guidance, personnel, administration, and parents—nurture and respect the essential contribution and value of others to provide an education that prepares students to make decisions that will enhance the quality of their lives. We endeavor to strengthen their decision-making abilities using activities and skills taught through academics, majors, the arts, and extracurricular activities—all in a Standards-based educational program. Mission--We will engage the entire school community to provide students with a safe and structured environment. Each student will be prepared for decision-making using values taught at Clara Barton High School. The school will instill values and skills by example, modeling, and instruction. We will cultivate a climate of civility and accepted multicultural diversity. Respect will be contagious.

Principal's Statement

Our primary focus is to prepare students with an interest in the health professions for either college or an entry-level position in a health career. We offer students other career opportunities as well through a variety of special programs and courses. Our mission slogan is "Educating Today for A Healthy Tomorrow." We achieve this mission because our philosophy is "No one rises to low expectations." We expect more and provide the support needed to ensure that our students meet high expectations. All students are provided access and equity to school programs.
