School Mission Statement

The P.S. 15 community will provide a nurturing and intellectually stimulating environment that will create lifelong learners who are productive members of society. A foundation built on the strengths and individual learning styles of its students will enable P.S. 15 to foster a strong sense of community, a commitment to learning, and a respect for cultural diversity.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 15 is located on the Lower East Side of Manhattan. Our children represent the cultural diversity of New York City. We offer a standards-based curriculum enriched by music, dance and technology. After school programs offer courses in literacy, math, sports and technology.

Special Academic Programs

Balanced literacy program; integrated curriculum; early intervention for at-risk students; music and arts programs; student-published newsletters, literacy magazines and children's books; technology is infused throughout the curriculum.

Extracurricular Activities

After school programs: Music appreciation and Saturday programs provide support in literacy and mathematics for grades 3 - 6.

Community Support

Grand St. Settlement, NY Library, New York Cares, Fairchild Publishers, United Way, Everybody Wins, & St. Vincent's Hospital all generously donate time and personnel. New York University students provide additional help to our students.

Parent/School Support

P.S. 15's PTA works tirelessly to support the educational environment. Parents willingly donate their time to serve on the School Leadership Team and district councils. The PTA organizes and presents workshops for parents on a number of topics: health, technology, literacy, math.
