School Mission Statement

The mission of PS 19 is to instill a lifelong love of learning and foster self-esteem in every child. Our overall philosophical goal is to provide each student an opportunity to achieve academic success in a language and literature rich environment that is meaningful, stimulating and creative. This philosophy guides us in providing developmentally appropriate, interactive learning experiences. We believe that if we provide choice and a rich diversity of curricular opportunities, each student's skills and abilities can be developed to his or her maximum potential.

Principal's Statement

In 2006, PS 19 was identified by the New York State Department of Education as one of only 290 High Performing/Gap Closing schools in New York City. We work hard to provide a stimulating and nurturing environment for all of our students. Small class size is key to this approach; our early grade classes (K-2) average twenty students per class. Our visual arts teacher, music teacher and long standing relationship with Third Street Music School provide all of our students in grades PreK-5 with invaluable exposure to the arts. We are planning a major expansion of our enrichment program in the 2007-8 school year.

Special Academic Programs

This school's special academic programs include participation in the: Teachers' College Reading and Writing Project, Rosie's Kids Theater Program, Big Brothers and Big Sisters, Reading is Fundamental sponsored by Holland and Knight, Esq., 3rd Street Music School, and NYU America Reads.

Extracurricular Activities

Extracurricular activities include extensive after school programs including: The Academic Success Academic Enrichment Program, Art Club, English Language, Learners Enrichment Project, Girls and Boys Projects, Science and Technology Enrichment Program for high achieving students and Early Morning Homework Help.

Community Support

PS 19's partnerships include: Holland and Knight, Esq., Learning Leaders, America Reads (NYU), The Go Project, Third Street Music School, Rosie's Kids, Girls and Boys Projects, Power Lunch and Chinatown Planning Council.

Parent/School Support

Parents provide support for P.S. 19 by funding special class projects and activities. Parents serve as school volunteers and serve on the following committees: School Leadership, School Safety and Title I Advisory Committee.
