School Mission Statement

PS 34 will create an environment which respects individual differences, promotes high achievement, and encourages each member of the entire school community to be an active learner. We see a community of learners who are confident and prepared to meet an ever-changing complex society.

Principal's Statement

PS/MS 34, The Franklin Delano Roosevelt School, recognizes that the key to success belongs to those who know how to learn. The academic programs offered are developmentally sequenced learning opportunities that support students in their development as astute learners and productive citizens. We provide a rigorous, standards-based curriculum that includes mastery of the basics and acquisition of literacy in the humanities, mathematics, arts, sciences and technology. We offer instruction in Chinese, Spanish language, orchestral and choral music, visual arts and computer access in all classrooms, providing a well-rounded educational experience.

Special Academic Programs

Balanced-literacy including writing process, math investigation, Spanish classes, instrumental and choral music, portfolio development, visual arts, architecture program, Teaching Matters-technology based- Social Studies project, Project Arts, musical theatre, America Reads Tutors, New York University student teachers, .

Extracurricular Activities

Holiday and Spring Concerts, TADA Musical Theatre, Visual Arts, HipHop, Attendance Assemblies, Music and Art Scholarships, After School Programs, such as Homework Helper/Test Preparation, Middle School Lunchtime Clubs, Elementary and Middle School Basketball Team, Cheerleaders Team, Book Fairs.

Community Support

Community support includes: partnerships with Third Street Music School, Kaplan Henry Street Settlement, Arts Connection, Junior Achievement, Pace University, New York University, Pencil Inc., and Pfizer.

Parent/School Support

We at PS 34 are working together to create a safe and nurturing environment that extends beyond the school and into the home and community in order to nurture the talents and abilities of all our members. We support an active PTA which coordinates Learning Leader Volunteers, fundraisers, and social activities for students, staff and families.
