School Mission Statement

P.S. 50 is a caring community of learners that works hard to create a "school-world" of love, peace, fairness, justice, fun, and achievement for all. All members of the Vito Marcantonio School community thrive on the individual and collective learning created by the use of shared language and values, consistent expectations, and perpetual celebrations of the diversity of life. Our students will experience life-long benefits from the marriage of community values and academic study we seek to create through rigorous teaching and learning that urges and equips us to make meaning from everything we study and do, and to translate this meaning into positive actions that improve our individual and collective worlds.

Principal's Statement

Located in East Harlem, PS/IS 50 is nestled inside the Metro North Houses which feature sweeping views of the East River. Our classrooms are characterized by standards-based, assessment-driven instruction designed to meet all student's needs. Our roots are planted in the holistic soil of heart, mind, and spirit, and our school grows from the seeds of student, teacher, and family leadership! We nurture our growing community with the sunlight, water, and nutrients of rigorous professional development, collaborations that create consistency and equity in instruction, family engagement experiences, and meaningful immersion in artistic disciplines!
