School Mission Statement

All members of the I.S. 52 community are united in a common mission: to maintain a safe and conducive school environment, to deliver a quality educational program based on high standards of academic excellence, and to protect the physical and emotional well being of our students so that every child may gain the knowledge, skills, and abilities needed to become a productive citizen and a lifelong learner.

Principal's Statement

I.S. 52 is committed to the development of a professional learning community by providing quality instruction in a safe and nurturing environment. We strive to empower students, parents, and staff to be active participants in a professional learning community with high academic standards, a culturally rich environment and social support systems. We strive to provide a performing arts background that will foster a love of music, art, drama and dance throughout the students' educational experience.

Special Academic Programs

Alpha Academy for gifted and talented students; Inwood Village Academy for 5th and 6th grade students; academic intervention services; visual and performing arts programs for all students; after-school and Saturday academic programs and extensive enrichment activities.

Extracurricular Activities

21st Century extra-curricular programs; sports and fitness programs; leadership development programs; Kids Unique; Lang Youth Medical Program; Herstory Club; MATHCOUNTS; Working Playground.

Community Support

Columbia Presbyterian Hospital (school-based clinic and dental services); Inwood Community Services (after-school academic, and social programs); SOAR anti-drug program; 21st Century violence prevention programs.

Parent/School Support

An active Parents' Association conducts frequent meetings and workshops, as well as classes in ESL, GED, and computers. Eight elected parents serve on the School Leadership Team. Parent volunteers support school activities. A full-time parent coordinator serves as the liaison. A parent center is open all day for assistance and activities.
