School Mission Statement

P.S. 84, The Lillian Weber School, an inclusive community of life-long learners, seeks to focus on the creation and maintenance of a nurturing and safe environment that is cohesive, stimulating and supportive of the teacher's role to teach and the student's role to learn. Our goal is to create a culture where shared learning among teachers and students is valued and encouraged. Problem solving strategies and critical thinking skills are at the core of our instruction. Best practices are evident in all classrooms and are designed to meet the needs of all students. High expectations are embedded into every activity. We believe that our positive school culture will support the social, creative, and academic development of our students. It is our hope that our students will reach their potential and be well prepared for a productive future that is both appreciative of diversity and filled with choices.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 84 is a school community of more than 450 students. We are a Teachers College Reading and Writing Project School. In addition, we have Dual language instruction on every grade. A standards-based curriculum, academic rigor, high expectations, and a talented professional staff define our school and provide enrichment through diversity and excellence in education. It is my goal, as Principal, to create a school culture that values and celebrates learning. It is my vision to develop a learning community that grows and flourishes as it prepares its students for a successful future.
