School Mission Statement

The central vision of P.S. 98 is to develop a plan to support the school community in creating and shaping an outcome driven educational system. Staff members and parents will be actively engaged in the process, share the vision and contribute to its achievement.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 98, built between 1923-1924, is a Schoolwide Projects School with a wide variety of programs designed to serve children from Pre-Kindergarten to Grade Four. It received the 1997 Literacy Hero Award from the Mayor's Office at City Hall. P.S. 98's educational environment is highly positive and its leadership and instructional initiatives focus on educational, social and linguistic needs of the school community. The school has hosted visitors from the Dominican Republic, England, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Spain, Switzerland, the U.S. Virgin Islands and Uruguay, as well as from throughout New York State.

Special Academic Programs

Dual Language Gifted Program (The Discovery School), METAS Maintenance Bilingual Program, an Inclusion Class and an Open Access Library Program. The After School and Saturday Academy Programs offer additional educational experiences in Literacy and Mathematics.

Extracurricular Activities

Ballet Hispanico of New York, LINC Literacy, Inc. Program for first grade students. The school also participated in the Junior Achievement Program. Furthermore, first and second grade students participated in the Backpack Adventures Program coordinated by the school's librarian.

Community Support

This school had a partnership with the NYC Department of Health, CenterCare Inc., and Inwood Community Services, as well as with the Wall Street firm Goldman, Sachs.

Parent/School Support

Strong and well-organized Parents Association and active participation of parents in the School Leadership Team. Daily GED classes are offered. PA meetings include guest speakers.
