School Mission Statement

The Andrew Draper Academy is a diverse community that strives to have all students achieve academic excellence and high standards, including high achieving, at-risk, special education, and ELL students. Our learning environment acknowledges multiple intelligences and recognizes varied learning styles. We incorporate and encourage inquiry-based learning, hands on experiences, and the active collaboration of home, community, and school.

Principal's Statement

We are excited to report that PS 101 (the Andrew Draper Academy PreK-6th grade) will organize a middle school (the East Harlem Leadership Academy 7th and 8th grades) in September, 2005. Our elementary program will continue to follow balanced literacy and everyday mathematics and will use Social Studies and Science in a thematic content-driven approach. We have an infectious spirit of community, shared by staff and students alike. We recognize that students learn in different ways and that the curriculum should be tailored to meet those needs. We boast a million dollar Robin Hood library with over 8,000 new titles.

Special Academic Programs

Cook Shop Program K,1,2; Horticultural Society 3,4,5; Audubon Society 5,6; Ice Hockey in Harlem 3-7; Science Experimentation and Inquiry K-8; Wireless Laptop Computer Initiative 6-8; VHS-Musical Instrument Guitar Program 7-8

Community Support

The RAPP Program offers AIDP services for students at-risk attendance problems. Ice Hockey in Harlem provides students with free uniforms and equipment and ice hockey instruction on ice. We have partnerships with Mt. Sinai and North General Hospitals offering varied workshops for parents and students.

Parent/School Support

Parents are trained through the NYC School Leaders Program. Many parents become Class Moms and provide instructional assistance in classes. We boast a CBO Parent Information Center which facilitates referrals to agencies offering GED, basic skills and ESL and SSL. Computer classes for parents during day and after school.
