School Mission Statement

The Bilingual Bicultural Mini School's Mission is to provide a performance standards-based curriculum that is of exceptionally high quality, challenging and intellectually engaging for all our students.

OUR MISSION WILL BE ACHIEVED THROUGH THESE GOALS: 1) Students, parents, teacher, and administrators are treated with respect; 2) Trust, faith and belief in our children are ever present; 3) We recognize and nurture the gifts and talents of our students; 4) Provide higher level of knowledge in all subject areas; 5) The integration of technology across the curriculum; 6) An arts program that gives all students access to art, music and dance instruction; and 7) Parents participate in schoolwide activities that support them in being actively involved in their child's education.

Principal's Statement

The Bilingual Bicultural Mini School was founded in September 1973 and became the first District 4 bilingual bicultural elementary school in East Harlem. Today BBMS/P.S.182 is a K-5 school which services English language learners, as well as English-dominant students who are learning Spanish as a second language. Over thirty years later, BBMS P.S. 182 has established a clear vision and mission that has transformed the school into an exceptional bilingual bicultural educational community. As a community of learners and instructional practitioners, we have a set the tone for educational excellence for all.
