School Mission Statement

The Twenty-first Century Academy for Community Leadership, P.S. 210, is a Kindergarten to Grade 8, Spanish and English, Dual Language school, where we promote the love of learning. Through high standards and differentiated instruction we chart the progress of children. In partnership with Region 10 and the Community Association of Progressive Dominicans, Inc.(ACDP), a local CBO, children and families are provided with the social/emotional, physical, and academic support that they need to be productive citizens. Our school is dedicated to achieving high standards of academic excellence for all of its students, through standards-driven instruction, a nurturing environment and the development of the civic and social skills necessary to function productively. Our mission is to provide a dual language learning experience that will enable all students to become lifelong learners and leaders in their communities and in our global society.

Principal's Statement

The Twenty-first Century Academy for Community Leadership, P.S. 210, is a Kindergarten to Grade 8 dual language school located in the heart of Washington Heights. P.S. 210 offers a child-centered dual language curriculum with a Social Studies Core. We are a New Vision School that works in partnership with Region 10 and the Community Association of Progressive Dominicans. Our mission is to provide a dual language, Spanish and English, learning experience that will enable all students to become lifelong learners, and leaders in their communities and in our global society.

Special Academic Programs

In partnership with the Midori Foundation, our children receive violin lessons twice a week for enrichment.

Extracurricular Activities

Together with Region 10 and the Community Association of Progressive Dominicans Inc. (ACDP), our local CBO, the children of P.S. 210 have the opportunity of attending a Twenty-first Century Learning Center after-school program. This after-school program provides tutoring, music, and arts for the children.

Community Support

In partnership with ACDP and organizations like the Center for Immigrant Rights, The Children's Health Fund, Presbyterian Hospital, and more. The students and their families receive social emotional support by fostering strategies that develop social/emotional, and academic skills.

Parent/School Support

The Twenty-first Century Academy is closely linked to community resources that provide our students and their families additional family support. In collaboration with ACDP, The Children's Health Fund, Presbyterian hospital, Project Linc and The Two-Way Bilingual Grant, parents are welcomed to get deeply involved in their children's education.
