School Mission Statement

Food and Finance High School offers an academically rigorous career and technical education (CTE) that focuses on culinary arts and finance as it relates to the industry where students will develop critical thinking skills. The school is designed to serve a diverse population who will meet academic and industry standards. Our mission is to further enable all of our students to become self directed life-long learners who use their minds well and are caring, reflective and thoughtful adults. We will use food and finance as the integrating force for teaching and learning for a sustainable future.

Principal's Statement

Food and Finance High School is in its fourth year with 9th and 10th, 11th and 12th grades and a current enrollment of 450 students. The focus of the school is culinary arts and finance with the goal that our students after having successfully passed their five regent examinations, and their career technical certifications, will go on to college and further their education. Our philosophy is to create a learning environment that will enable students to become critical thinkers and self-directed learners.

Special Academic Programs

Regents prep classes. We have a strong Advisory class which provides students with the tools and the skills to succeed. Before and afterschool tutoring and Saturday Academy. Culinary and technology, and Guests Lecture Series.

Extracurricular Activities

EATWISE (Educated Aware Teens Who Inspire Smart Eating),poetry club, school newsletter. PSAL boys and girls basketball, tennis, handball, bowling, volleyball and crosscountry. We also have a drama club, dance team, step dance team, student run business, A+ Catering, peer mediation and intervention.

Community Support

FoodChange, our partner, has staff in the school full-time working with the administration, staff and students to help fulfill the school's mission. Other partner organizations include: C-CAP, Black Culinary Alliance, Restaurant Associates, Harlem Children's Zone, Y.D.I., Cornell University Cooperative Extension and Freshfield, B & D. law firm.

Parent/School Support

Parent Teacher Association and the School Leadership Team meet monthly to discuss policies and procedures relating to the academic and social well being of our students.
