School Mission Statement

City College Academy of the Arts (CCAA) is a 6-12 early college school. With City College of New York and the Early College Initiative, our primary partners, we have designed a learning community that is supportive and safe, as well as, rigorous and challenging. CCAA students graduate with as much as two years of college credit. The arts are the conduit through which students develop the skills to become problem-solvers, critical thinkers and analytical learners. CCAA is committed to ensuring that our students succeed not only in college but as valued members of their families and community.

Principal's Statement

CCAA has partnerships with several cultural institutions within NYC. These include City College of New York-CUNY, Lincoln Center, Aaron Davis Hall, the Cooper Hewitt Museum, Young Composers, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Students at CCAA participate in residences with organizations such as Bash the Trash and Guy Davis.

Special Academic Programs

CCAA teachers engage in daily curriculum development that is focused on integrating the arts across content area. All students at CCAA participate in arts programs such as singing, dancing, drama, technology art, science and peer mediation. Students also attend Saturday school, academies and a Summer Institute(during the month of July).
