School Mission Statement

The High School of International Business and Finance is a community of learners working together to develop self-reliant, high achieving students that are able to transfer knowledge and skills to real life situations and are prepared to succeed in college and the world at large.

Principal's Statement

Our school is a student-centered college preparatory high school. Our learning environment is academically rigorous with high standards, with thematic-based instruction. Besides offering an a Regents curriculum, we develop technologically literate, self reliant, high achieving students through interdisciplinary classes, English Language Learners' Program, and Bilingual Program in Spanish.

Special Academic Programs

Special options include Virtual Enterprises: Business simulation program that allows students to operate their own virtual business on a global scale. Many students attend college through this program and are placed in firms throughout New York City for paid internships and mentoring.

Extracurricular Activities

Baseball, basketball, football, soccer, track and cross-country teams; theater, R.O.T.C., Saturday School, Chess Plus, Band, Campus Literary Magazine, Dance Club, Choir, UN Global Classroom, Yoga, MOUSE Squad Club, and Regent's Prep and Homework Center after school.

Community Support

City College, Lehman College, Isabella Geriatrics Center, ALIANZA Dominicana, United Nations, Virtual Enterprise, Mind Matters of NYC Inc., Harlem Center for Education, NYC Mentoring Program.

Parent/School Support

PA meetings, parent conferences, community events, such as award ceremonies, End of Year celebration Provides the Educational Academy for the families of the community offering courses in second language acquisition. School Leadership Team Retreats, monthly workshops.
