School Mission Statement

Teachers, administrators, parents and caregivers will work together to develop mature citizens committed to their community and high academic achievement. Students will develop a sense of confidence, commitment and responsibility that will guide them through all of their endeavors as educated and productive members of society. Through our standards-driven instruction, nurturing environment, and the development of civic skills, we will continue to foster a community of lifelong learners.

Principal's Statement

The School for Law and Public Service provides all students with a rigorous theme-based curriculum, in which students understand the relationships between themselves and the world at large. Teachers, administrators, parents and caregivers will work together to develop mature citizens committed to their community and high achievement. Students will develop a sense of confidence, commitment and responsibility that will guide them through all of their endeavors as educated and productive members of society. Our graduates will have experience in and knowledge of the public sector, law and their ability to make positive change in the community.
