School Mission Statement

HSFI, the premier high school for the fashion industries in the United States, provides a rich and challenging academic education for its students while simultaneously developing their creative talents and abilities via our majors--fashion design, art and graphic illustration and marketing. With the support of our university and industry partners, we provide a unique set of learning experiences for our students. Dedicated to having our students succeed at the post secondary level, each year HSFI successfully launches over 90% of its graduates into colleges and universities. As an educational institution, we are committed to supporting the formation of responsible and contributing members of the world community.

Principal's Statement

In 2006, our students were awarded over 3 million dollars in grants and scholarships, including three POSSE scholarships, and were accepted at SUNY, CUNY and prestigious private colleges throughout the country. HSFI has collaborations with Parsons School of Design, Pratt Institute, FIT, the City University/College NOW Program, the Council of Fashion Designers of America, Young Audiences, ARTS Connection, International Center for Photography, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Lincoln Center Open Stages, Black Retail Action Group, the Roundabout Theatre and The Door.

Special Academic Programs

Honors classes in all academic areas, Advanced Placement classes, College NOW offerings, Peter J. Sharp SAT prep, magnet programs in fashion design, fashion art, photography, textile design, marketing and visual merchandising, AM/PM school tutorials for students in need of academic support.

Extracurricular Activities

FASHION CARES community service program, photography, Anima Club, drama, school newspaper, literary magazine, Big Brother/Big Sister, modern dance, chorus, PSAL basketball, swimming, volleyball, baseball, softball, tennis, bowling and track teams, peer mediation/conflict resolution program, debate club, chess, DECA, and VICA clubs.

Community Support

Partnerships include: Big Brothers/Big Sisters; Business Mentors for the Adopt-a-Student program, International Center of Photography, Fashion Crafts Educational Commission Advisory Board, ARTS Connection, Business of Art and Mural programs, Learning Leaders, the Door, BRAG, School Volunteer Program and Coop Program.
