School Mission Statement

The mission of the James B. Colgate School, P.S. 12Q is to prepare its students, including special education, bilingual, English Language Learners and high achieving students, for the twenty-first century. In order to accomplish this, we must create a warm, caring, nurturing environment where students can learn about themselves and others so that they will become responsible informed citizens. Literacy is the primary resource upon which students will draw in order to compete in a rapidly expanding global society. We must dedicate ourselves to creating lifelong learners. The mission requires the total cooperation and commitment of the entire school, (parents, staff and community) in our efforts to strive for excellence.

Principal's Statement

Our school community is dedicated to helping all students reach their highest potential. In order to achieve this goal, we provide our children with a high quality education in a warm and nurturing environment. Parents, teachers, and community organizations are constantly working together to support our children.

Special Academic Programs

The school's special academic programs include: Extended Day Literacy Program for grade 1-5 students, Earlybird Math program for grades 1-5 students, ELL Academy with a focus on science, and an Art enrichment program.
