School Mission Statement

P.S. 18 is committed to providing students with a safe and nurturing environment wherein children learn to be concerned citizens, respectful of the diverse thoughts and beliefs of others. Students are encouraged to take risks, accept new challenges and work toward achieving their full potential. As a school community, we strive to:

- A. Differentiate the curriculum and instructional strategies to maximize success for all students.*
- B. Provide an environment in which students are encouraged to inquire, apply and extend their understanding of the world through problem solving and decision making.*
- C. Educate the whole child thus promoting both self-confidence and mutual respect.*
- D. Offer professional development for staff in all areas of the curriculum.*

Principal's Statement

As a school community, P.S. 18 believes that all children have different talents and learn in different ways. Our multi-cultural population enables us to celebrate cultural diversity while recognizing our similar goals. All of our classes work diligently to build a community of mutual respect and love of learning. By providing a warm and nurturing environment, we support and encourage all of our students to achieve high academic standards. As a school, we celebrate that we are a community of learners.

Special Academic Programs

P.S. 18 maintains a partnership with Columbia Teachers College Reading and Writing Project. The workshop model is an integral part of classroom instruction. The District 26 gifted program is housed at our school. Additional programs include: Math League, Robotics, Stock Market Game, English Language Learners program.

Extracurricular Activities

Our Student Council participates in a variety of activities that promote school spirit including raising awareness of issues and making charitable contributions. Chorus, CHAMPS Tennis program, Ballroom Dancing and enrichment clusters support the talents of our students. A Self-Sustaining After-School Program is offered throughout the year.

Community Support

Partnerships with local colleges enable education students and volunteers to work with our youngsters. We maintain partnerships with a variety of arts institutions to enhance our Visual Arts program. Civic leaders and local politicians are invited to speak to our students about community concerns.

Parent/School Support

Our active PTA provides support to all areas of school life. As fundraisers, members of various committees, and participants at meetings and workshops, parents demonstrate a willingness to support and enrich the education of all our students. Parents are invited to attend monthly workshops given by the principal and parent coordinator.
