School Mission Statement

PS 35's mission is to tap into the capacity of all stakeholders to synergistically educate the mind, body and spirit of all learners within the walls of our institution. Taking responsibility for ourselves as we strive to do our personal best; respecting others as we empathize and seek positive ways to communicate; and servicing the world as we take on the role of good citizens are all part of the hidden curriculum. PS 35 is a place where children come first, and everybody is somebody.

Principal's Statement

PS 35 is a learning institution that is on the move. The PS 35 administration, staff and community is a focused team whose goal is to foster the kind of positive learning experiences that prepare our students to be creative problem-solvers, life-long learners and productive citizens. PS 35 students will be empowered with the strategies that they will need for the personal academic, social and emotional success required of them for the twenty-first century.

Special Academic Programs

Building Essential Literacy (BEL) in grades K-3, AAA Reading, Reading Is Fundamental, Science Laboratory, one-on-one tutoring with Great Leaps for fluency, After-school ESL Program, Before-school Literacy and Math Intervention, Project Arts, Conflict Resolution/Peer Mediation, currently designing a state-of-the-art Library/Media Center.

Extracurricular Activities

PS 35 is looking for new ways to enrich the curriculum with after-school interest clubs. We have just become involved with an after school program grant called the Youth Mediation Corps. whereby a small group of 9-12 year-olds are participating in interactive workshops and community service projects that enhance leadership skills.

Community Support

Gifts in Kind, Children for Children, Adopt A Class, Reso A Grant, Peaceful Playgrounds, NYC Asset Lab Project, Community Mediation Services, Inc.

Parent/School Support

Parents are welcomed to be active members of our school community. They serve on our School Leadership Team as well as its subcommittees. PS 35 parents attend PTA meetings as well as workshops addressing academic issues. The Parent Coordinator organizes "Saturday is Family Fun" whereby families are able to visit NYC sites of interest.
