School Mission Statement

P.S. 41's mission is to strive to be a great school that has:

children who are challenged and supported. a safe school environment that is physically inviting. enthusiastic, creative and kind teachers. the priority of meeting the needs of all children. strong parental support. an atmosphere that makes learning fun. respect for the diversity of all children and teachers. dedicated, knowledgeable and innovative teachers who work together with camaraderie, respect and support. effective leadership that supports students, staff and parents. a willingness to try new things and bring in new ideas. a wealth of resources. small class size. extra-curricular activities. clear rules and expectations. continuity of curriculum. the ability to address the strengths and weaknesses of all children. a positive atmosphere and good morale for the staff and students.

Principal's Statement

The staff at P.S. 41 is committed to providing the highest level of education to all of our students in a nurturing and supportive environment. We can accomplish this goal with the support of caring parents, teachers, support personnel and community members. Our literacy curriculum is focused on the study of reading and writing through a workshop approach in collaboration with Columbia's Teachers College. Our math curriculum is focused on collaborative problem-solving using manipulatives. Science utilizes hands on scientific investigations. We are devoted to enabling children to experience the arts, through drama, dance, music and visual arts.

Special Academic Programs

Teachers College Reading/Writing Project-staff development for teachers, math workshop model, Project Arts music and drama programs, an annual science fair, Schoolwide Enrichment Model to focus on academic excellence, Academic Intervention Services for students who need additional help, Ballroom Dancing.
