School Mission Statement

P.S. 65 Queens, Raymond York Elementary School, is dedicated to preparing the children to become productive and tolerant citizens in our culturally diverse society. Families, staff and the community working together will continue to provide a nurturing environment to help our children achieve their full potential and become lifelong learners. It is our responsibility to ensure that the children are prepared for the competitive and vastly changing technological world.

Principal's Statement

Public School 65 has continued to succeed through the support of a private grant allowing us to implement the research based Success For All model in literacy and math. Our school is dedicated to providing the children with the skills and strategies needed to become successful members of society. Our entire school community is dedicated to fostering high standards and expectations coupled with academic excellence in order to ensure student progress.

Special Academic Programs

Success For All Reading and Math Programs, Project Arts teacher, technology integration using laptops and smartboards, individualized tutoring, after school programs, Saturday Academy, content area specialist, academic intervention specialists, reduced class size.

Extracurricular Activities
