School Mission Statement

The mission of P.S. 69 is, with parental support, to provide equity in education, respecting all cultural differences. P.S. 69 students will achieve the literacy, mathematical and technological skills needed to succeed in our challenging society.

Principal's Statement

The students of P.S.69Q perform consistently well in reading and Mathematics compared to other NYC schools. The English Language Learners in our school continue to make tremendous strides in English Language acquisition. As the magnet school of Cultural and Performing Arts, our students experience extensive exposure to music, dance and visual arts activities. Recently, we have been chosen to be a Schoolwide Enrichment Model. All students experience opportunities to be successful in various areas of interest through curriculum-based and interest-based enrichment clusters.

Special Academic Programs

Special academic programs at P.S. 69Q include the readers and writers workshop and Everyday Mathematics. Our Kindergarten and first grade classes experience an early childhood enrichment program which ties in literacy and the arts. Additionally, our students participate in project based learning based on areas of interest.

Extracurricular Activities

During the 2005-06 school year, extra-curricular activities included two vocal ensembles, violin and band instruction, and two guitar groups. Additionally, Visual Arts and Ballroom Dancing take place during the school day.

Community Support

Among the many partnerships, we had programs with Dancing Classrooms, the Queens Museum, Lincoln Center and Carnegie Hall. We also have an ongoing relationship with the Jackson Heights senior citizen center and the Jackson Heights Beautification Group.

Parent/School Support

In addition to PA meetings, parents offer assistance with schoolwide events and fund raising. We offer parent workshops in ESL, reading, math, science, technology, and the promotional policy. Our Parent Coordinator works closely with parents on a daily basis and coordinates parent workshops in a variety of topics.
