School Mission Statement

Our mission is to provide the highest quality standards-based instruction to all of our students so that they are able to meet challenging new standards in each subject. We are firmly committed to providing the entire school community--students, parents, and staff-- with the support they need to excel. We focus our efforts on living up to our motto and becoming truly a 'family of learners'.

Principal's Statement

I.S. 77Q was named a National Model School for America's Choice in 2005. We are a 'Beacon' in Ridgewood with over 50% of our students involved in afterschool activities: homework help, clubs, testprep, tutoring, recreation, sports, and counseling. A student government assists in community projects such as canned food drives, unicef boxes. Technology is integrated throughout the curriculum and in afterschool activities. There is an award winning conflict mediation program in place for students. A dedicated faculty and staff, with our students make IS 77 a true 'Family of Learners'.

Special Academic Programs

IS 77 has a nationally recognized Math and Language Arts program in place. There are special programs for: Students new to our country, students with special needs, students with Reading/Math needs, Accelerated Math, Science, and Spanish classes, music, art, dance, law or technology interests.

Extracurricular Activities

We sponsor many before and after school activities as well as partner with neighborhood community based organizations for: student government; conflict mediation; peer tutoring; chess club; computers/technology/robotics; intramurals.

Community Support

Our vocal, instrumental, dance students have performed in school wide concerts open to family members. Students have contributed to food, toy, and clothing drives throughout each school year. Our students regularly visit a neighboring elementary school to read to first graders there.

Parent/School Support

We have a thriving Parent Teacher Association as well as active parent participation on our School Leadership Team. A newsletter and calendar of events is provided monthly to parents by our Parent Outreach Coordinator.
