School Mission Statement

Our mission is to provide a child-centered, language-rich environment that meets the academic, social, emotional and physical needs of all our children for the purpose of fostering increased academic achievement. We will collaborate with all constituencies to maximize the learning potential of our students. By incorporating the richness of the children's diverse cultures into our instructional programs, encouraging individual expression through music and art, as well as increased success in all aspects of school work, we will enhance children's self-esteem and self-worth.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 107 is a multi-cultural learning environment where each student is looked at individually and provided the necessary resources to excel. P.S. 107 is a barrier-free site, offering support services to physically challenged students in a traditional school environment. P.S. 107 is a school with a strong emphasis on the fine arts. It has a rich history of musical, theatrical, and artistic productions. Our Project Arts residencies have enabled us to collaborate with a variety of artists on an ongoing process of integrating the Arts with grade level curriculum.

Special Academic Programs

Classes for intellectually gifted children, Self-contained Special Education classes, Special Education Teacher Support, ESL, Academic Intervention Classes, Extended Day Program, A.M. Test Prep. Workshops, Full day Pre-K Program, Literacy Paraprofessionals.

Extracurricular Activities

Non-academic activities included: basketball and cheerleading teams, junior tennis league, a conflict-resolution program, peer mediation program, dance club, instrumental (strings) club, 2 glee clubs, a chess club, recorder sessions, computer and library squads, and a safety squad.

Community Support

Partnerships with American Chess Foundation, Bklyn Conservatory of Music, Carnegie Hall, Young Audiences New York, N.Y. Foundation for the Arts, Annenberg Recipient, Toys R Us; Fund for Children. We have also been chosen as a Young Audiences "Bright Lights" school.

Parent/School Support

Parent/School collaboration is the most important factor in our school's success. Our Parent Workshop series (including Spanish, Korean, and Chinese translated workshops) will continue in the Fall of 2006 in an attempt to increase family involvement and improve the Parent/School bond. The Book of the Month program will be continued.
