School Mission Statement

The mission of P.S. 112 is to provide our children with a comprehensive education in a safe and nurturing environment that will enable them to become successful citizens of the 21st century. We believe that all children can learn. We have high expectations of all our students. We will strive to meet the needs of all students and help them meet high standards. We recognize and celebrate the diversity of the P.S. 112 community. As partners, our students, parents, staff and community will work together to achieve our shared mission of making P.S. 112 a place of learning and a model of educational excellence.

Principal's Statement

At P.S. 112 everyone is focused on helping children become successful learners. Our children are supported by a dedicated staff. Students attending P.S. 112 receive a rich academic program that focuses on promoting high standards of literacy. The academic program promotes the integration of reading, writing, and math in all curriculum areas. Genre focus, author studies, and special literacy campaigns promote the joy of reading. The curriculum is supported and enriched by an expanded arts program. Students learn to appreciate diversity through multicultural celebrations. Everyone at P.S. 112 works hard to make our school a learning community.

Special Academic Programs

Students were involved in Author Studies, Project Arts Residencies, Literacy Campaigns, New York Times Education Program, Student Literary Magazine, South Street Seaport Museum Project, Math Is All Around Us Month, and Multicultural Projects.

Extracurricular Activities
