School Mission Statement

Our school's mission is to continually enrich and maintain "A COMMUNITY OF LEARNERS." Students will participate in a comprehensive curriculum, which emphasizes reading, writing, problem solving and respect for themselves and all others in a safe and orderly environment supported by school staff in partnership with parents. Our curriculum will enable our students to achieve academic excellence and to develop skills to become life long learners and productive members of society.

Principal's Statement

P.S. 116 is proud to offer a standards based curriculum in a nurturing, supportive environment. Parents, teachers and students are united as a "Community of Learners" to achieve academic excellence, social responsibility and to foster creative development. It is our belief that with high expectations, all children will become responsible, productive learners.

Special Academic Programs

Through the awarding of a CSR grant, PS 116 is participating in the America's Choice Program. Our students also participate in After-School Academic Programs, Game 24 Math Program, 100th Day Celebration, Science, Math, Technology Fairs, Multi-media Research Center, Peer Tutoring, Junior Great Book Club and Academic contests and competitions.

Extracurricular Activities

Our extracurricular activities include our award winning Gospel Choir, School Choir, Sports and Arts Foundation, Dance Club, Basketball Team, Step Team, Photography Club, Future Business Leaders of America, Chess Club, Feast of Love Food Drive, Art Showcase, Career Day, College Day, Health Fair and Safety Patrol.

Community Support

We receive support from the Parks Department, NYC Learning Leaders, United Way, the Sports and Arts Foundation, St. Christopher-Ottillie Foundation, York College, High School of Teaching.

Parent/School Support

Parents are actively involved in all aspects of school life. PTA meetings are held monthly. The School Leadership Team meets monthly. FAMILY NIGHT activities take place monthly. Parents-Teaching-Parents workshops are offered weekly. Additional parent workshops are planned by our Parent Coordinator.
